

Your sponsorship of Collateral Risk Network events supports the activities of our organization. Below we have some options to help promote your brand to the influential members of the CRN. If none of the options below fit your budget we would be happy to work out a special custom sponsorship that fits your needs.

CRN sponsorship is a great way for you to increase your brand awareness and build relationships within this important group of thought leaders. While these sponsorships are good for one meeting only we would be happy to work out a multi meeting package discount.
